PEAK 2009 will provide a great learning opportunity for FFA members. The sessions have been enhanced to provide more hands-on opportunities for participants—and more fun for all!!

The 2009 PEAK Conference will be held at The Leadership Center in Aurora, Nebraska. There are two sessions to attend.

The Leadership Center is at 1609 E. Hwy 34, Aurora, NE 68818. The phone number is 402-694-3934.

Highlights for 2009 PEAK include:

- Experiential activities.
- Low-element ropes course activities.
- Focus on developing personal mission and goals.
- Action plans to take information learned at PEAK home and share with other members.

PEAK is set up in a very successful tier system again that will allow students to focus on the areas in which they wish to develop with fellow students of their own age. The areas of emphasis will be as follows:

7-8-9

Grades: Exploring agricultural education and the FFA; understanding basic leadership; goal setting, making smart choices, and serving others.

Sophomores: Importance of involvement; SAE development and proficiency opportunities; communication strategies; working as a team; serving others.

Juniors: Modeling expectations; living a life of character; building relationships; using talents and leadership; serving others.

Seniors: How to serve as a leader; how to handle change; living a life of service; creating a vision; planning for the future.
